Commendable.

The Board of County Commission ers have signified their intention of clearing the streets and alleys of Reno. This is clearly their duty, but our citizens have stumbled over cobblestones so long that they have become tender footed, and doubt whether a Board of Commissioners have any powers for good. The last Board tnew that the treasury was full of dollars, but ignored the fact that our streets were equally full of obstruc tions; they acknowledged that it would be better could our streets be kept open, but they were unable to take action in the matter. The law prevented them from protecting the public thoroughfares, and hence men who were not fortunate enough to own lots, built in the alleys. Companies who had occasion to lay pipes through our streets did so, and left long rows of cobble-stones to show where they had been at work. This might have been prevented but for the rigor of the law which precluded action.

It seems now that the new Board of Commissioners have found that they can act, and propose to protect every body who may be included in the traveling public. We are not informed whether there has been a special enabling act passed, but are inclined to think that the present Board takes another interpretation of the same law. A good, honest attempt at cleaning the streets is commendable anyway, and our people waited in vain for such an effort on the part of the last Board. Such a movement will meet with wholesome sympathy, and succeed beyond peradventure, and we only hope that the Board will be as vigorous in prosecuting as they have been prompt in commencing the work.

A private order will be issued to the Road Supervisor, and he will notify parties of their duties in the premises. The Commissioners will stand with him in all cases, and thoroughly test their own powers in this matter.

Incorporation.

We understand that there was quite a lively discussion last evening in the Board of Trade over the communicated article which appeared in yesterday's Gazette. Several of those present wanted the writer's scalp produced immediately, and others occupled themselves in guessing why, and jail. wondering at his impudence.

As we have often said before, the Gazette is not here to elect itself to office, nor to express our personal views upon this or any other subject. We want the views of the people upon all matters which affect them. These we learn as well as possible through conversation, and we also extend an invitation to all to express themselves in writing when they deem We will only say that we know the bayonets of Federal troops. writer to be in favor of incorporation, Trade that unless a general expression and took up the matter of the return are opposed to incorporation are not face of the returns. > NEW YORK, January 1st. - The the silver market is likely to be unsteady, and is sure to be calculated with difficulty. First, it remarks, the uncertain quantity which the German Government may at any time sell, hangs over the markets. The effect of the increase of council bills on the Indian demand for silver has still to be fully tested in practice. The American production is still an unknown quantity, though everything seems to show that it is much less than it was thought to be. The Latin Union is still in an expectant attitude, and may possibly resume. Till these causes have ceased to operate as powerfully as they do now, no important stock of silver will be kept, since the future is too uncertain to justify it; and until it is kept the price will probably fluctuate a good deal, though not as much as during the past year, when most of the influences that cause variation have been at a maximum, and most of those which cause stability at a minimum. Under these circumstances, the Economist remarks, it will be desirable that no Government shall involve itself in a currency change depending on the relative relations of silver and gold which has not begun one already with facts must take, we commend to Senators who are in doubt what to do with the Bland silver bill when it reaches the Senate.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

We glean the particulars of the affair from the Virginia Chronicle:

About 5 o'clock yesterday morning a bloody tragedy occurred at the Delta saloon, Virginia City, in which one man was killed, one fatally him. wounded and a policeman slightly wounded. It appears that Richard Paddock and Thomas Hughes, proprietor of a cock pit, were in the Delta saloon drinking and singing. Officer McDonald came into the saloon and ordered them to be quiet or he would take them to jail. Hughes said that train on the Chicago, Burlington and he was committing no breach of the peace and would not be taken into custody. McDonald attempted then to arrest Hughes when the latter drew city. The conductor, brakeman, his pistol and hit the officer over the engineer and fireman were killed. head. The parties elinched and commenced firing. Paddock while attempting to part them was shot in the head and fell insensible to the floor. McDonald shot Hughes three times, twice near the heart and once through the throat. Hughes died also instantly. McDonald is in

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 2d .- The fourth sitting of the plenary Conference was held to-day. The Marquis of Salisbury expressed the views of the Plenipotentiaries upon the Turkish counter proposals. The Turkish delegates enumerated the points upon which they did not consider they could negotiate. These were chiefly the organization of a local gendarmie sion and the integrity of the Servian territory. The Plenipotentiaries asked if this declaration is tantamount to an absolute refusal. The Turkish delegates said they must refer to the Porte. The next session of the Conference will be held next Thursday, when the

A MURDEROUS ATTACK.—The following is from yesterday's Virginia Chroneile: Last night a murderous attempt was made upon the life of a man who has been some years in the employ of the V. & T. R. R. Co. as foreman of building operations, etc., known as Old Jot Householder. He was passing down Washington street, between the railroad and McFarland's lumber yard, in company with Mr. Underwood, when suddenly a man stepped up before them and delivered Old Jot a blow on the head with a bar of iron which knocked him sense less for about fifteen minutes. He was taken home and Dr. Aiken sent for. It was found that a terrific blow had been delivered over Jot's left eye. which had closed the organ entirely and left terrible bruises and laceration on the side of the face. It was enough to kill any ordinary man, but Jot is remarkably tough and vigorous and does not seem to seriously consider the matter. He told a reporter that he knew his assailant and that the attack was the sequel of an old grudge. He declined to reveal the man's name on the ground that it was no way to avenge an injury, but undoubtedly thinks he can take care of himself when he gets around again.

The Chilean International Exhibition, held at Santiago in 1875 awarded a diploma to the public schools of Washington, and it has just been presented to the Board.

The most popular optional study of the Yale Seniors next term is political economy, under Prof. Sumner. The German language and English Literature come next.
